There is a world to share

. . . a world as fresh as morning

. . . as bright as a dream of sunlight on wide waters . . .

. . . as peaceful as a prayer.

And we can exult in the world we share.

We see trees writing poems against the sky.

The wind song is our music.

The dawning of this beautiful day is etched on our hearts...
... as unforgettable
as the beginning of friendship.

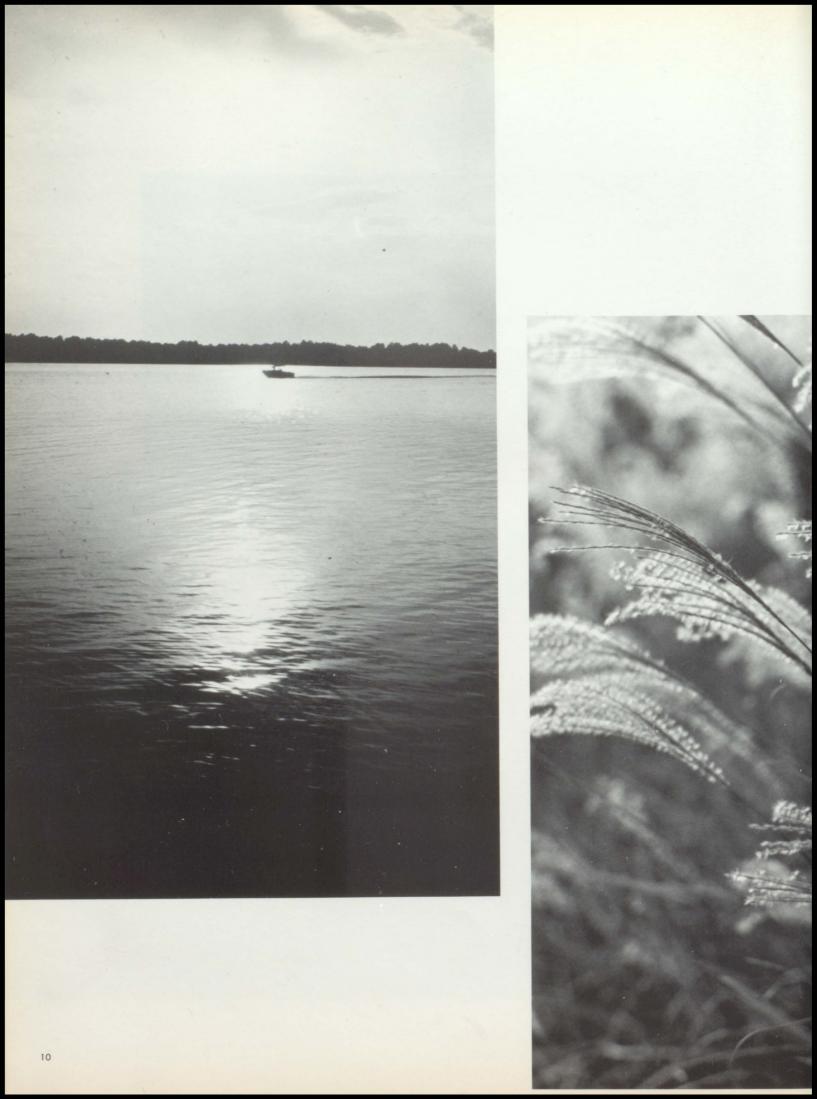

The world is warm around us. The tears of night and the haze and uncertainty of morning disappear in this strong, secure noontime we share . . .

. . . and everywhere glows the sun.

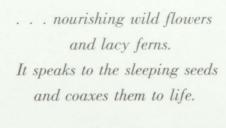

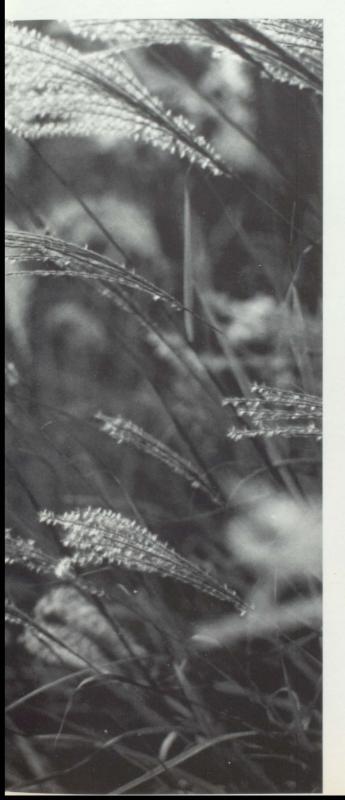

Its rays dance on the rippled waters.

Its warmth mingles with the wind.

Its strong fingers reach into the cool earth . . .

It is like the summer of friendship
. . . the time when shyness is forgotten and trust is forged . . . strong and enduring.

Time when all is revealed . . . and accepted. Glad-hearted time of the strong handclasp and merry laughter . . .

. . . time we share.

We follow the sun now
... out of the tangle
of trees and vines ...
into an open place ...
a golden field in the afternoon.
A place where we can pause and talk
... and share our dreams.

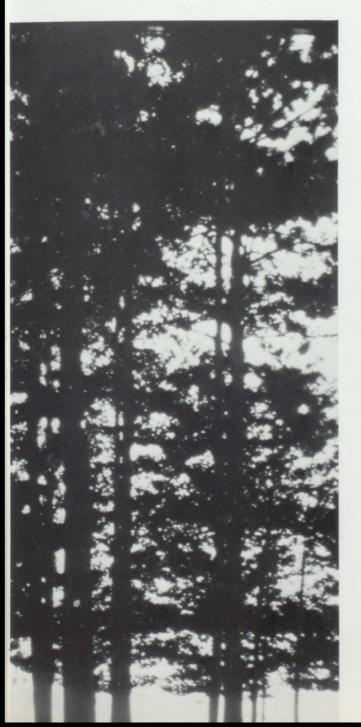

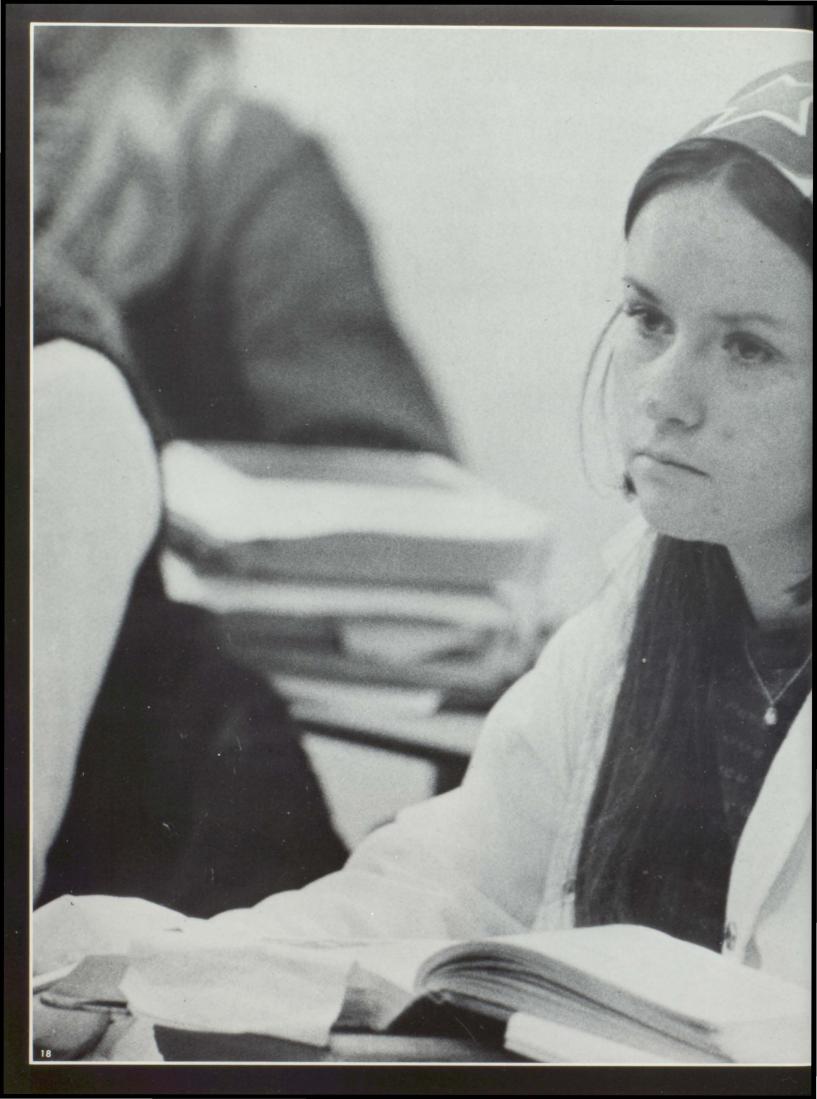

We are alone now in the half-light . . .
. . . in the place of shadows

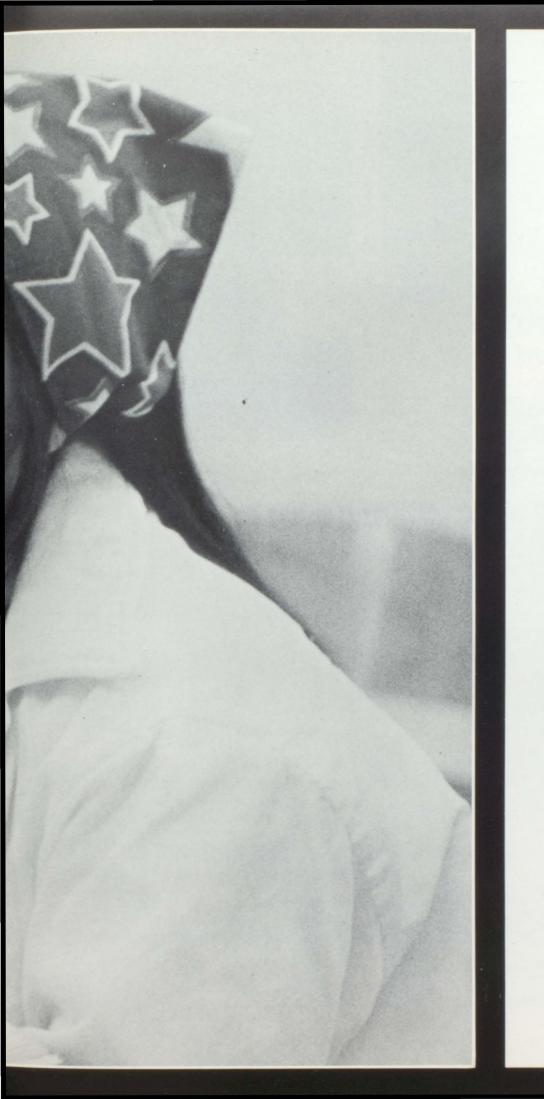

The old mysteries return to us.

It is time to wait
for that first star of evening
. . . time to listen to our memories.

Dedication

Mr. G. Lewis Wright

Most of the students at Northeast Senior High know Mr. G. Lewis Wright as a senior English teacher at Mark Smith. However, we, the Valhalla Staff, see him in a very different light. We see him as someone who cares about students not only as learners, but as human beings. He is a warm person and if you seek his advise, he will go out of his way to help you. It is clearly evident that Mr. Wright is educated not only in the realm of academia, but also in the world of human experience.

We had to go behind your back to do it, but it is with great pleasure and gratitude that the staff of the 1973 VALHALLA dedicates this yearbook to Mr. George Lewis Wright.

National Honor Society

I pledge myself to uphold
The high purpose of the National Honor Society
To which I have been elected,
Striving in every way
By word and deed
To make its ideals
The ideals of my school
And of my life

Motto — NOBLESSE OBLIGE Colors — BLUE and GOLD

OFFICERS: (I to r) Deborah Redding, Secretary Rosco Glover, President Suellen Epps, Vice President Jane Holmes, Treasurer

Senior Members

Junior Members

Advisor: Mrs. Margaret Elkins

Membership in the National Honor Society has become recognized nationally as one of the highest honors that can be bestowed upon a high-school student. Membership is, however, more than an honor; it carries with it a responsibility and should be considered the beginning of an obligation; not merely the successful culmination of an effort to achieve recognition and honor.

Once selected for membership, a student is singled out. He should not only continue to demonstrate those outstanding qualities which brought about his selection, but he should also exert a new influence to improve conditions about him and promote those qualities, Leadership, Character, and Service, for which the National Honor Society stands.

Sometimes I like to sit by myself and think about all the people who have made this yearbook possible. First of all, I'd like to thank the advertisers. Without these people there would be no yearbook to begin with. Please help them as they have helped us.

There were many other people who played important parts in the production of this annual. To them I wish to express my thanks, and in some cases, pleas for forgiveness:

the great people on the VALHALIA Staff, for putting up with my temper and putting out this book; Larry Naylor, Taylor Publishing Company; our advisors, Mrs. Seward, Mr. Graham, and Mr. Wright; everyone at Meriwether Studios; the Administration and Faculty of Northeast, for their patience with our many mistakes and late notices; Brian Page, for his help with the pictures; and a special thanks to my parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Heard, my brother, George, John, Deb, and Cathy, for just being there when I needed them.

It is the sincere wish of the staff and myself that we have produced a yearbook which correctly records the many events of the 1972-1973 year at Northeast Senior High School.
